1. The first part of the report is a general introduction to the project. It should include the name of the project, the objectives, and the scope of the work.

2. The second part of the report is a detailed description of the methodology used in the study. This should include a description of the data collection methods, the analysis techniques, and the results of the study.

3. The third part of the report is a discussion of the results of the study. This should include a comparison of the results with the objectives of the study, a discussion of the strengths and weaknesses of the study, and a conclusion about the overall findings.

4. The fourth part of the report is a conclusion and recommendations. This should include a summary of the main findings, a discussion of the implications of the findings, and a list of recommendations for future research.

5. The fifth part of the report is a list of references. This should include a list of all the sources used in the study, including books, articles, and websites.

6. The sixth part of the report is an appendix. This should include any additional information that is relevant to the study, such as raw data, detailed calculations, or additional figures.
